Elective courses are taken in Part 2 of the programme and are subject to individual schedules. Block week electives are available, but please note that your choice of electives will be restricted if you only opt for those offered in the block week format.

Elective courses

During terms 4 and 5, EMBA-Global students must complete 10 elective options from within the EMBA-Global elective portfolio. This can include a combination of the following options:

- 1 The elective courses offered by Columbia Business School, London Business School and HKU Business School. You can select a format, timeframe and location to suit you.
- 2 An independent research course that challenges you to analyse and resolve complex business problems using the business skills, frameworks and tools acquired through the programme. You can work individually or in a team of up to four members with a faculty member from either School.
- 3 One required International Seminar or Assignment, which allows you to further broaden your global perspective. Each trip has its own unique focus, but usually includes attending seminars, visiting corporate sites and meeting with top business and government leaders. A choice of locations include Eastern Europe, China, South America, South Africa and India.

Core courses have been carefully planned so you can begin taking electives as early as the end of the third term. You may take all your electives at one school, thus reducing the need to travel.

Here is a sample of the elective courses offered at each school:

Columbia Business School

- Advanced Corporate Finance
- Behavioural Economics and Decision Making
- Capital Markets and Investments
- Emerging Financial Markets
- Entrepreneurial Management
- Globalisation and Markets and the Changing Economic Landscape
- Managerial Negotiations
- Mergers and Acquisitions.

London Business School

- Energy Markets, Models and Strategies
- Financing the Entrepreneurial Business
- The Global Business Leader
- International Finance
- Managing Change
- Managing Corporate Turnarounds
- New Rules of Strategy
- Paths to Power
- Project Management
- Venture Capital and Private Equity
- World Economy: Problems and Prospects.

HKU Business School

- Business Ethics and Corporate Governance
- Cross-Cultural Management
- Doing Business in China
- Legal Environment in Asia.

The balance and content of the elective portfolio changes each year to reflect trends in business practice and research and not all are available every year.

Flexible format

Electives may be structured in a number of formats to suit the EMBA-Global schedule. Most, but not all, electives are offered in the following formats:

Please be aware that due to timetable restrictions, not all electives offered may be available to you. Your choice of electives will be restricted if you only opt for those offered in the block week format.
